

The Parliamentary & Scientific Committee (an All Party Parliamentary Group) are running the following (free to BU staff) online events:

Monday 14 Sept at 17:30: Discussion with speakers on Non-Malignant Cancers, Precision Medicine and Genome Mapping. Speakers:

- Sarah McDonald, Director of Research and Patient Advocacy Myeloma UK
- Dr Karthik Ramasamy - Consultant Haematologist, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
- Dr Inês Cebola, Department of Metabolism, Digestion and Reproduction, Imperial College London
- Dr Ian M Frayling - Honorary Consulting Genetic Pathologist to St Mark's Hospital, London & St Vincent's Hospital, Dublin; Honorary Senior Clinical Research Fellow, Inherited Tumour Syndromes Research Group, Cardiff University and President Elect, Association of Clinical Pathologists

Mon 28 Sept - 17:30-19:00: Discussion meeting Science Education - supporting the UK as a science superpower (being held in partnership with STEM Learning Ltd) - speaker presentations followed by questions from the online audience (responsive and pre-submitted). Speakers:

- Donald Morrison, Senior Vice President and General Manager for People & Places Solutions, Europe, Middle East & Africa, Jacobs
- Baroness Brown of Cambridge (Professor Dame Julia King) DBE FREng FRS Chair of STEM Learning
- Allie Denholm, Headteacher, Heworth Grange School.

Mon 12 Oct - 17:30-19:00: Discussion meeting on Racial Inequality in the UK Science Community

Tues 13 – Thurs 15 Oct - The Royal Botanical Gardens Kew invite members of the Parliamentary and Scientific Committee (BU is a member) to their: State of the World's Plants and Fungi Virtual Symposium

Mon 26 Oct - 17:30-19:00: Discussion meeting on Sources, health benefits and global challenges of protein. Sponsored by the Nutrition Society

Mon 9 Nov - 17:30-19:00: Discussion meeting on How will COVID-19 impact on the Government's 'Ageing Society' Grand Challenge mission? Sponsored by The Physiological Society

Mon 23 Nov - 11.00am – 12.30pm: Discussion meeting on Aspects of Covid-19. Sponsored by UKRI

Mon 7 Dec – timing to be confirmed - Discussion meeting on Autonomous Transport

The webinars require a password to access them. Please contact Sarah if you would like to book a place to attend.

JANE FORSTER

Policy Advisor

Follow: @PolicyBU on Twitter

|

SARAH CARTER

Policy & Public Affairs Officer

|

policy@bournemouth.ac.uk